

House Resolution No. 3122

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have admirably dedicated their time and energy to ensuring that students are provided with learning environments which are rewarding, challenging, and productive in preparation for roles as lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Dwyla Young of Peculiar, Missouri, has distinguished herself as a high school teacher and coach in the Raymore-Peculiar R-II School District, a vocational calling which she will draw to a close on July 1, 2004, in retirement after twenty-one years of service; and

Whereas, currently fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of physical education teacher, head softball coach, and junior varsity girls basketball coach, Dwyla Young earned a 179-41 record during eight years as a head varsity softball coach whose teams won Conference Championships, took Third at state in 1999, and won the Class 4 Championship in 2002; and

Whereas, Dwyla Young also deserves mention of her receiving Cass County Coach of the Year honors for 2002-2003 and serving as an Assistant Girls Basketball Coach for the 1993 3A State Champions and as the Head Coach for the Missouri team in the 2003 Missouri-Kansas All-Star softball game; and

Whereas, Dwyla Young brought to her educational efforts a wealth of knowledge and experience which she gleaned from five years with Norborne public schools and five years with Marcelline High School; and

Whereas, Dwyla Young has enjoyed a long association with the National Education Association, National Fastpitch Coaches Association, Missouri State High School Softball Advisory Council, Missouri State High School Coaches Advisory Council, softball clinics for Raymore Youth Athletic Association players from age eight to fourteen, summer softball leagues, and American Softball Association summer softball; and

Whereas, Dwyla Young has attained many honors and accolades in life, none of which equal her respected reputation as a family-oriented person who is justifiably proud to be known as the beloved wife of Bruce and loving mother of Julie, Lindy, and Kara:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the significant career achievements garnered down through the years by Dwyla Young and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Dwyla Young of Peculiar, Missouri.
